

Moving Up at MASSY

Mrs. Amanda Mc Millan

Promoted to Vice President – Group Wellness and Benefits, effective October 1st, 2020.

Amanda joined the Group in the capacity of Employee Benefits Manager for Trinidad and Tobago in 2006 and was promoted to Group Director in 2008. In 2016, Amanda assumed regional responsibilities with oversight of the administration of health and retirement benefits. In December 2019, Amanda was recognised by the Group CEO as an example for all Massy leaders as someone who continuously lives our values and this announcement was met with a rousing and emotional standing ovation.

Mr. Jeremy Nurse

Promoted to the position of Vice President, Corporate Strategy & Business Development, effective August 1st, 2020.

Jeremy previously held the position of Director, Strategy & Business Development and has 16 years' experience working within the Massy Group in various roles at the operating company, business unit and corporate levels. He holds several advanced degrees, including a Master of Business Administration from Durham University (UK) and a Master's in Research Methodology in Management Science from IE Business School (Madrid, Spain). Jeremy is currently a doctoral candidate at IE Business School, focusing on research in corporate strategy and organisation design within multi-business firms, and a member of the Strategic Management Society.

Ms. Keesha Sahadeo

Joined the Massy Group as Assistant Vice President and Group Chief Accountant, effective September 1st, 2020

Keesha has oversight for both Corporate Reporting and Treasury & Accounting at Massy Limited. She gained over 16 years of experience at Ernst & Young (EY) serving clients across various sectors, including audit, M&A, divestments and restructuring as well as managing receiverships of entities across multiple areas. Keesha is a fellow of the Association of Chartered Certified Accountants (ACCA) and holds a Master's in Business Administration, with a specialisation in finance (with distinction) from the Arthur Lok Jack Graduate School of Business. Keesha is also an attorney at law and holds an LLB (Honours) from the University of London and an LPC (distinction) from Staffordshire University.

Congratulations on your new roles!
